

Contents

Preface	ix
Introduction	1
Embarking on the journey of theology
Part 1 Principles
1 Taking the first steps	3
Theology as a discipline
Jeanette Mathews
2 Surveying the terrain	9
The theological sub-disciplines
David Neville
3 Girding the loins	16
The being and doing of theological studies
Geoff Broughton
4 A lifelong journey	24
Going further in theological study
Matthew Anstey
Part 2 Planning
5 Getting started	28
Choosing good resources
Gregory C Jenks
6 Navigating	36
Types of assignments
Jeanette Mathews
7 Properly equipped	42
Researching your assignment
Matthew Brain
Part 3 Practice
8 On the road	51
Writing a good assignment
Seforosa Carroll

9 Journeying ‘on the shoulders of giants’	58
Using and acknowledging the work of others
Michael Gladwin
10 Best foot forward	69
Presentation and why it matters
Tom Frame
11 Adding a destination	74
Reusing your assignment in other contexts
Jeanette Mathews

Appendices

My journey	77
One student’s experience
Katherine Rainger
Further reading	79
Useful websites	80
Referencing	80
An outline for an exegesis paper	85
Road signs	87
Academic theological terms that might confuse new students	