

High in a tree,
Mrs Kookaburra
was singing.

'Excuse me, have you seen any wombats
Mrs Kookaburra?' Deefa shouted.
Mrs Kookaburra just laughed and laughed.

Wom bat wom bat where are you?

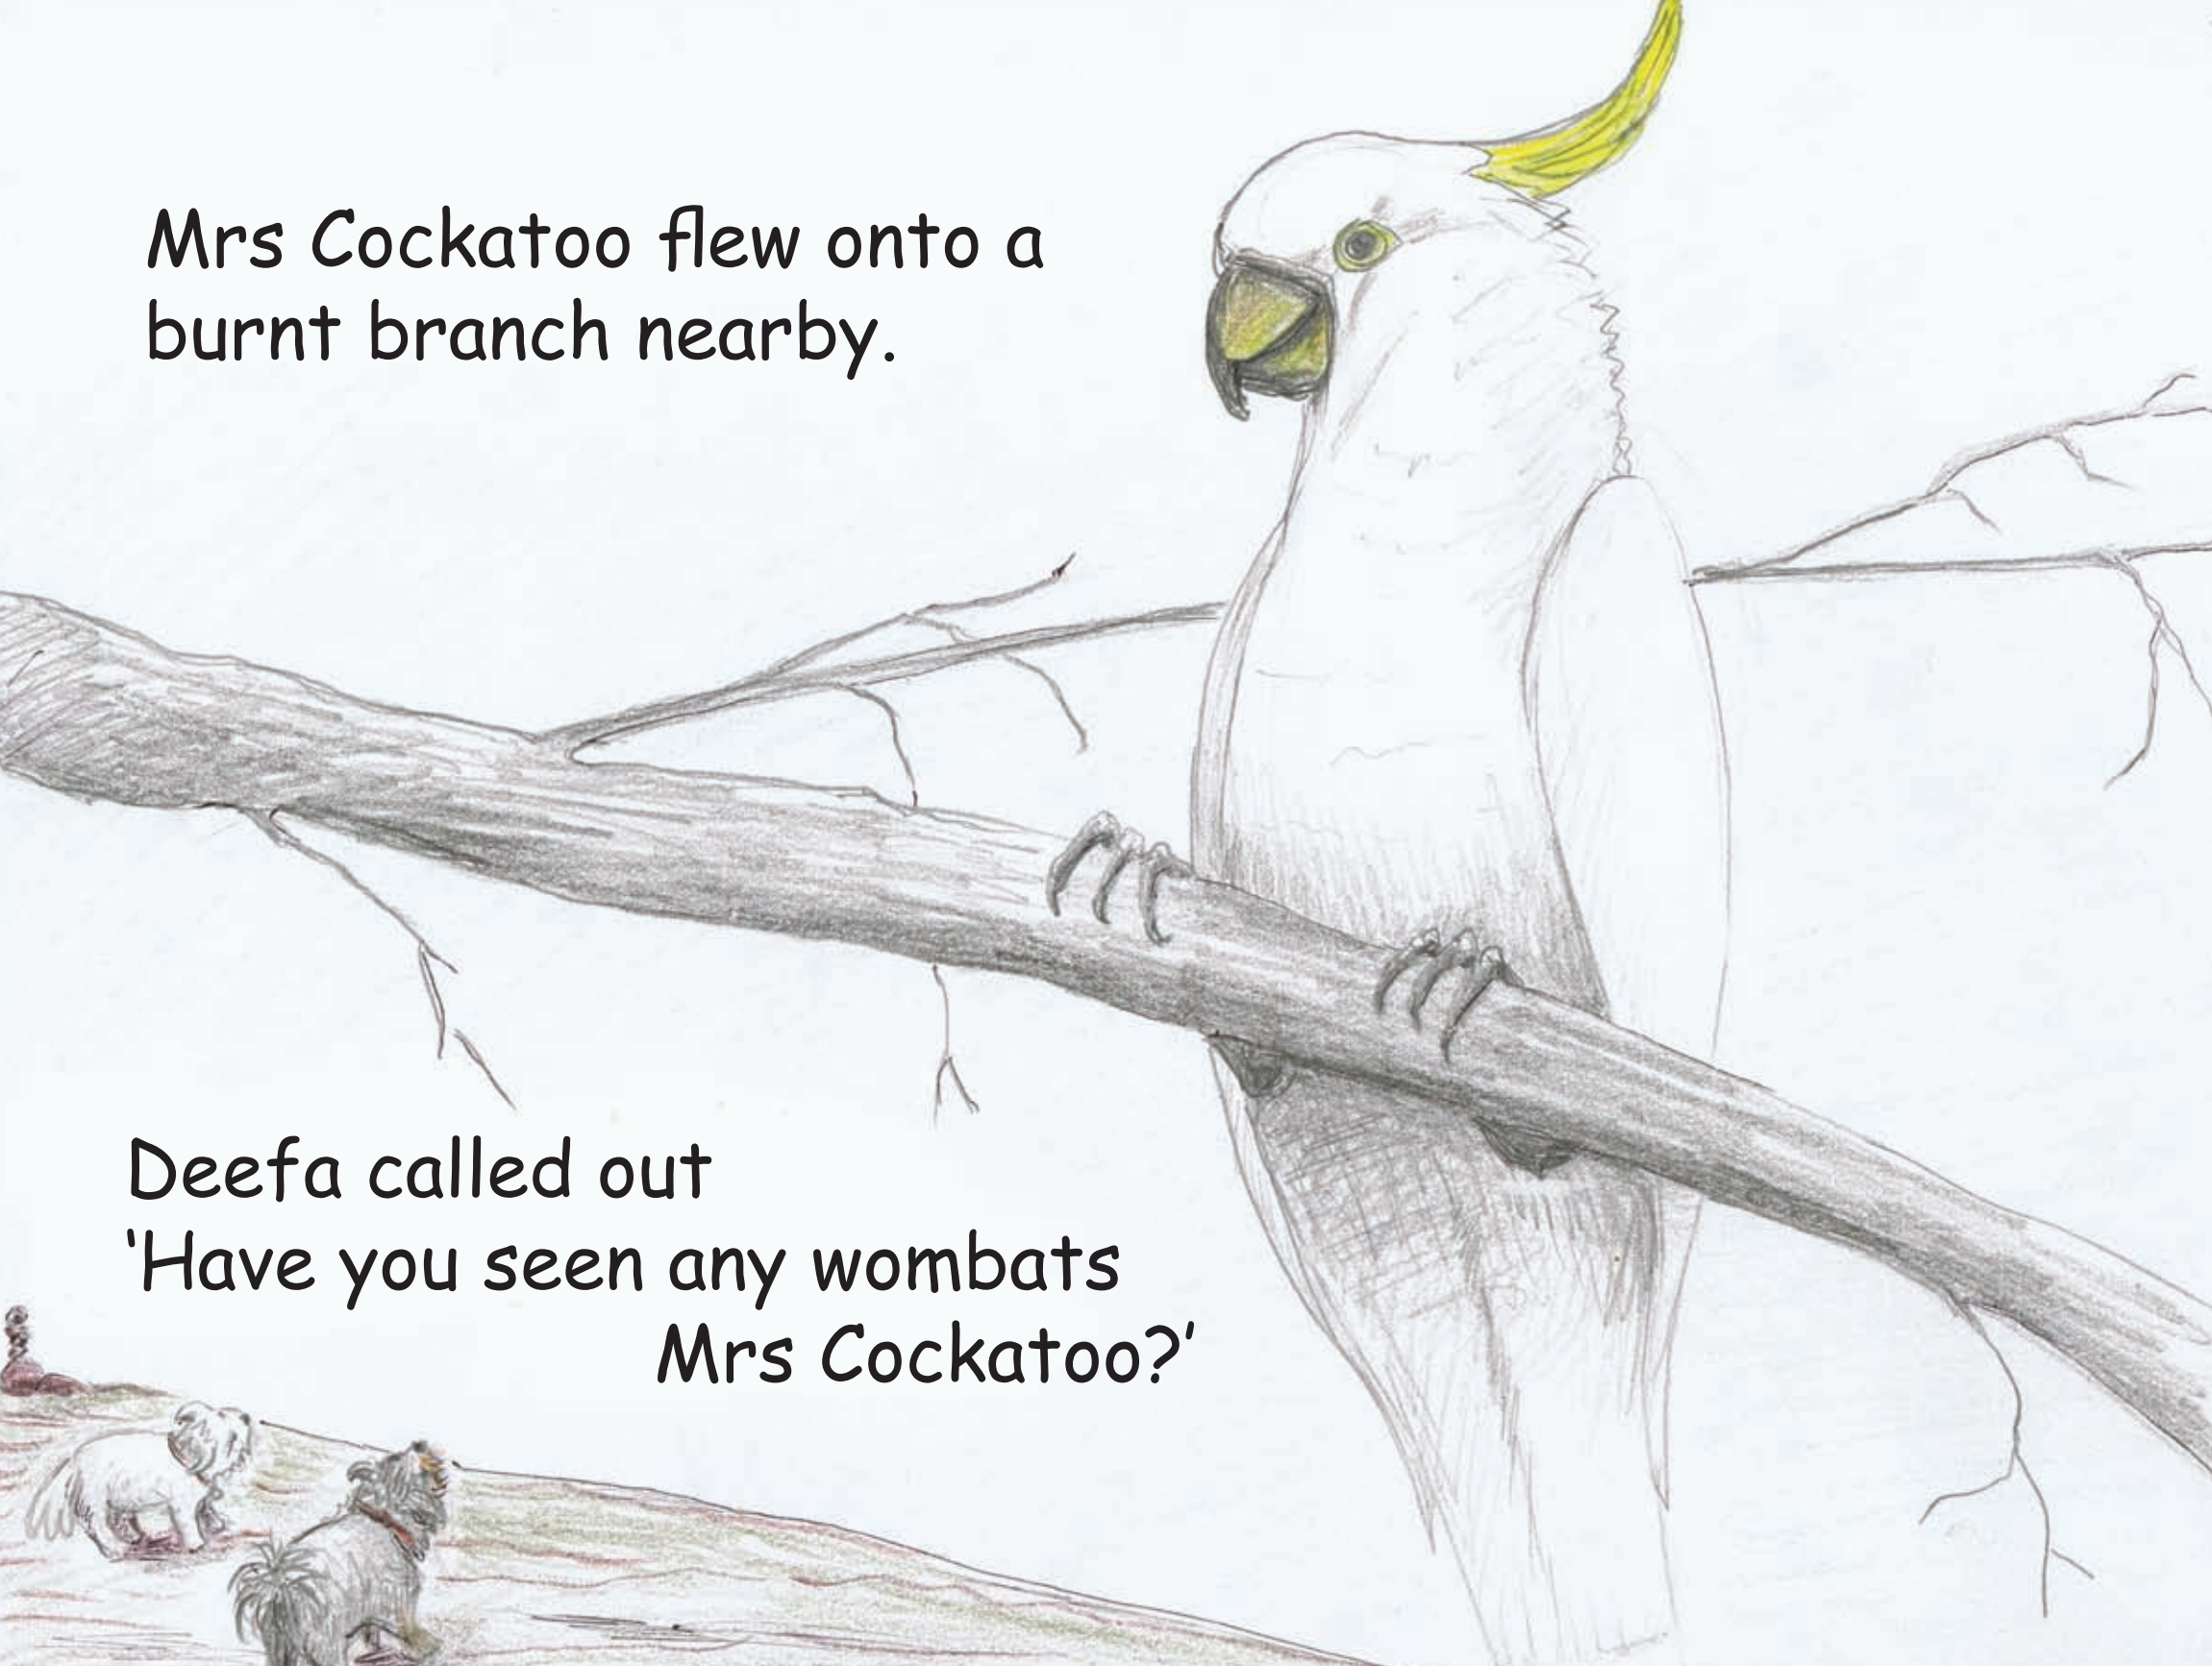

All we see is lots of POOH!

Mrs Cockatoo flew onto a burnt branch nearby.

Deefa called out
'Have you seen any wombats
Mrs Cockatoo?'

Mrs Cockatoo raised her crest, spread her wings and
cackled noisily,
'No-o-o-o-o'.

Wom bat wom bat where are you?

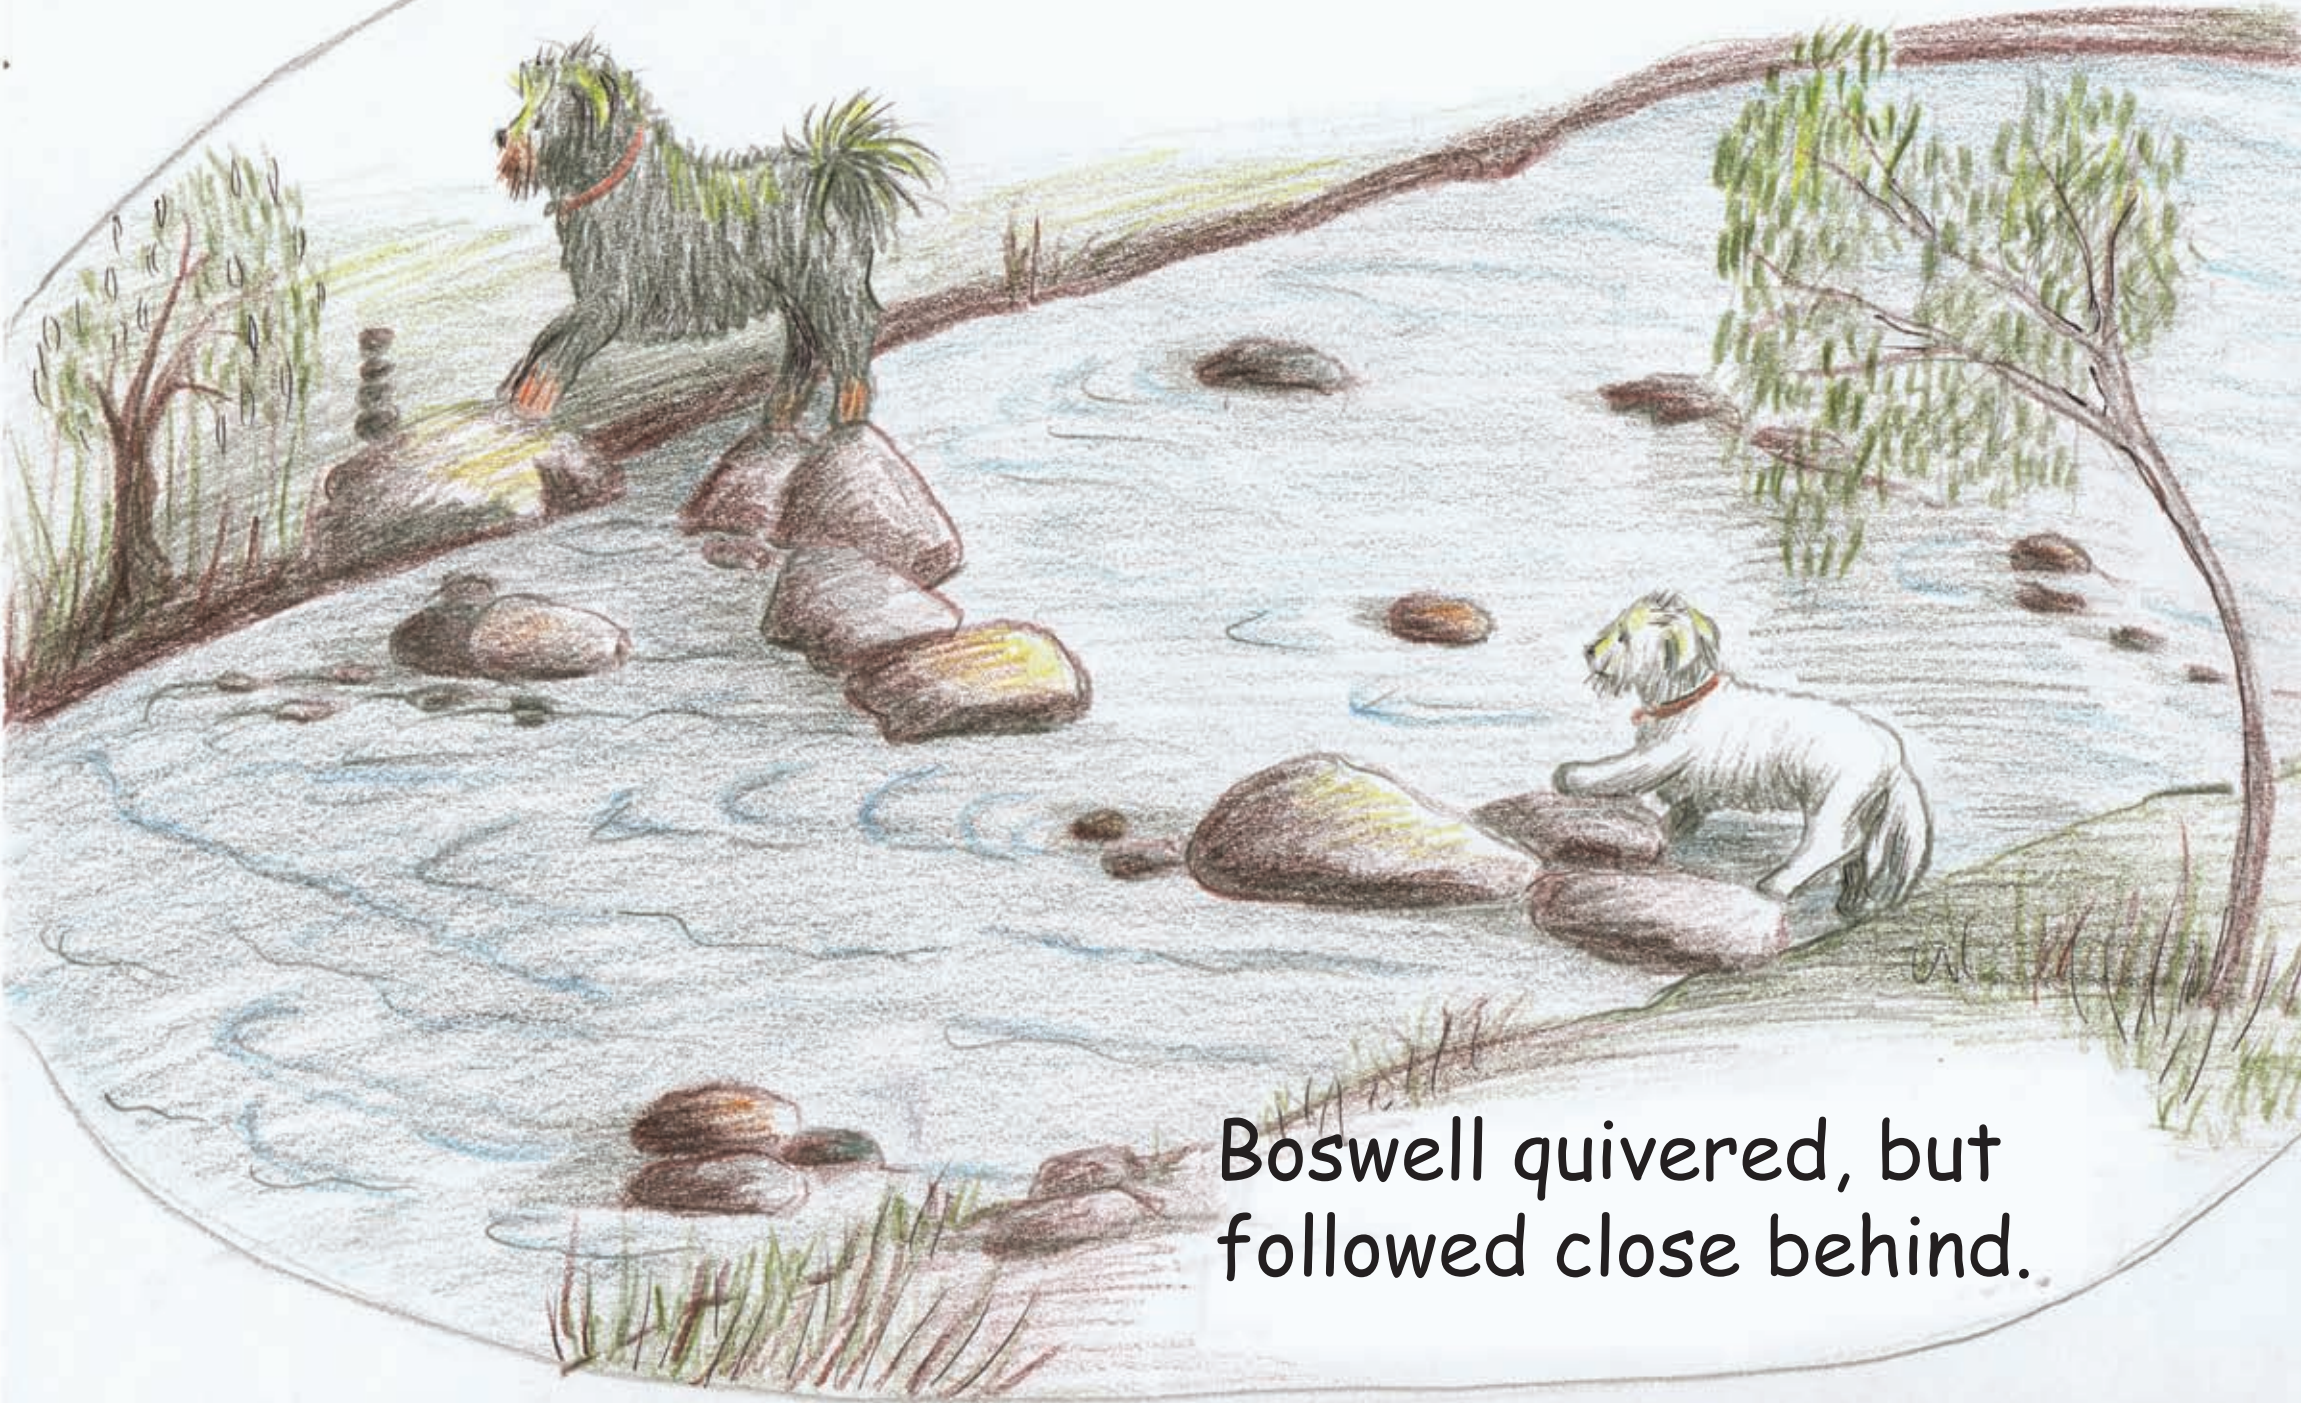

The image shows a musical staff in 2/4 time with a key signature of one flat (B-flat). The melody consists of quarter notes: G4, A4, Bb4, A4, G4, F4, E4, and D4. The lyrics are written below the staff.

All we see is lots of POOH!

The image shows a musical staff in 2/4 time with a key signature of one flat (B-flat). The melody consists of quarter notes: G4, A4, Bb4, A4, G4, F4, and E4. The lyrics are written below the staff.

Deefa bravely crossed the creek.

Boswell quivered, but followed close behind.